

Below is a list of requirements for the package delivery project. Feel free to request any changes you feel are necessary.

- Company name is On The Spot.
- Two websites. A customer facing site where they can place orders and an internal website for staff members to keep track of the orders.
- Customer facing website must collect the following information:
 - Business or individual customer and their name.
 - Contact details of person who will be present for the pickup.
 - Location of pickup.
 - Location of delivery.
 - Estimated weight and size of package.
 - Number of packages being picked up.
 - Time of pickup or if it's an immediate pickup request.
 - Requested delivery time or if it's to be delivered immediately.
 - If a signature is required
 - Any other delivery instructions
- Once a customer has submitted an order request an order number has to be attached to their order as well as the date and time the order was placed.
- Internal facing website must have the ability to input and retrieve the following information in regards to an order a customer has placed.
 - All information associated with an order number. Customer name, address etc.
 - Time the order was picked up.
 - Name of driver who picked up the order.
 - Time the order was delivered to the warehouse.
 - Time the order left the warehouse and which drive it left with.
 - Time the order was delivered.
 - Who accepted delivery and if a signature was left.
 - Type of payment. Cash/Check/Bank Deposit/Credit Card.
 - Payment amount.